Dear Candidate,

If you have already passed Section A Examination but unsuccessful to qualify Section B in six years, you can apply for Re-registration of Section B.

Section B Term

Upon completion of Section A Examination, a candidate is supposed to apply for Registration for Section B by paying requisite fee. The term of Section B Registration shall start from the immediate next term to the term of Section A completion (irrespective of the date of Section B Registration). For instance, if a candidate completed Section A in Winter 2016, his Section B Registration term shall start from Summer 2017 to Winter 2022.

Registration Expiry

If your six years' Section B term has already expired and you were not able to clear all subjects in section B, then you can now apply for Re-registration. Your Section A status will remain unaltered. Such candidates would be required to apply for Re-registration and also Section B Registration in the prescribed proforma.

Also note that, in such cases, Section B subject(s) already passed during six-years, if any, shall be forfeited and they would need to pass All subjects in Section B afresh as per the existing scheme. Also, they would be required to do project work and the laboratory experiments afresh.

The re-registration period shall be counted from the Summer examination immediately after the expiry period. For example, if six years period of a candidate expired in Winter 2013 examination, re-registration period of six years shall be counted from Summer 2014 irrespective of the month and year the candidate submits his application during the currency period of re-registration.

Candidates are advised to apply for the same so as to reach at the Headquarters office latest by April 10 and October 10, failing which they will not be eligible to appear in immediate Summer and Winter Examination, respectively.

No separate identity card will be issued after re-registration. In case the candidate desire to change the address/ replace the identity card/ report lost of identity card, she/he may approach to Membership Department with relevant application form available in the website.

Who Can Apply for Re-registration?

There are two kinds of re-registration.

1. Mature re-registration And
2. Pre-mature re-registration.

As we know the validity of registration is six years or 12 examination chances. If a student does not clear all subjects in Section B in six year's time, his AMIE registration automatically expires and he loses the credit of any subjects already passed. But this does not mean that he cannot attempt AMIE again. He can re-register for AMIE and will get another six years for clearing Section B. The re-registration made after six years is hence called mature re-registration.

Meanwhile, students whose registration validity is nearing expiry can also apply for re-registration. This is called pre-mature re-registration. This facility is available for Section B candidates.

The applicability of pre-mature re-registration is calculated on the basis of number of remaining examination chances and number of subjects that need to be cleared for completely passing Section B. As a general rule, if the remaining examination chances are NOT sufficient for clearing all balance subjects in section B, then the student CAN apply for pre-mature re-registration.

SYLLABUS

A Section B candidate should study 9 subjects in Section B. Of this 9 subjects, 6 are compulsory and 3 are optional. In order to impart practical knowledge, the Institution of Engineers has included project work and lab experiments as part of section B syllabus.

The project work may be done in the same firm/company where the student is presently engaged in. For doing laboratory experiment, the Institution of Engineers will contact the authorities of some engineering college/similar technical institution nearest to the location of the student and make necessary arrangement.

DURATION

With one re-registration, the validity of his membership extends by 6 years, counting from the date of expiry.

How to Study

The AMIE syllabus is freely downloadable from website. The IEI doesn't take any responsibility for teaching you. The IEI will conduct examination and will issue certificates and that's all. Students must find their own way to study the subject to prepare well for examination. Since AMIE is a degree level examination, a peripheral knowledge on the subject will not be sufficient for scoring pass mark in the exam.

Jyothis Academy provides complete assistance for studying AMIE. Our faculty highly experienced in AMIE teaching offer

- (a) Regular full time class
- (b) Part time classes (On Holidays)
- (c) Postal Coaching (For out station students)
